Met Singer Coming to Corvallis

Blanche Thebom, leading mezzo-soprano of the Metropolitan Opera, will appear in Corvallis at the Gill coliseum on Wednesday, January 10, at 8:00 p.m.

The rich-voiced vocalist has recently returned from Europe where she appeared for the first time. She made her debut at the Royal Opera House in Stockholm as the heroine of Saint-Saens' Biblical opera, "Samson and Delilah." The Swedish audience recalled her for a record 45 curtain calls. When the asbestos curtain was drawn and the houselights raised, the audience refused to leave and Miss Thebom was forced to come out from the prompter's box in front of the stage apron to continue to respond to the applause.

Only 10 years ago Miss Thebom left a secretary's job to take her first music lesson. Within two years, she had a contract from Impresario S. Hurok. After three concert tours, she was ready for Manhattan's Town Hall in January, 1944. At the end of the same year, her Metropolitan Opera debut was given.

Miss Thebom was chosen best woman singer on the air in Musical America's seventh annual radio poll

Radio Station Offers New Program Series

Plans for the next in OCE's series of weekly broadcasts over radio station KOAC in Corvallis are being centered on audio-visual education. Joseph I. Hall of the State Department of Education will discuss with Henry C. Ruark, Jr., and his assistants the values and advantages to be derived from the use of audio-visual aids in teaching. This program is scheduled for 7:00 p.m. on Tuesday, January 9.

A choral program prepared at OCE for a special Christmas day broadcast was delayed in the mails and did not reach KOAC.

Tuesday evening, December 26, the program consisted of a panel of OCE students from Miss Carter's contemporary problems class in the first part of a two program discussion of the atom bomb and its use. The second half of this discussion was broadcast the evening of Tuesday, January 2.

Varsity H. Closes Due To Occupant Shortage

Varsity house, the first men's co-operative house on the campus, was started fall term, 1949, for the purpose of providing reasonable living costs for athletes. Approximately 25 boys lived there last year, paying $40 a month each. With this number staying there, the house was operated on a profitable basis.

It was a different story this fall, however, as only 15 men returned, with three of these leaving mid-way through the term. As the same amount was charged for room and board, expenses topped the income and as a result Varsity house closed its doors at the end of the fall term.

National Defense Stressed at Meet

Six faculty members and two students from Oregon College of Education attended the Pacific Northwest Conference on Higher Education which included 35 colleges with 145 representatives from Montana, Idaho, Washington and Oregon. The group met recently on the Reed college campus in Portland.

Theme of the conference, "Students and the National Emergency," was thoroughly discussed so that colleges and universities might play a more vital role in national defense in the future.

It was suggested that a program of concurrent military and educational training for young men be instituted in colleges and universities and that the physical plants of these institutions be utilized for the military training of young men. The idea was forwarded that certain scientific projects and problems be given to the colleges for solution, and that colleges train technicians and give any other emergency training involving either military or civilian defense.

Roy E. Llewellyn, Louis Kaplan, Matthew R. Thompson, H. Kent Farley, Delmer R. Dewey, Miss Jane Dale, Ray Godsey and Ford Forster were delegates to the conference from OCE.

Standard Achievement Tests To Be Given

All students who are now in teacher training and who intend to enter supervised teaching must take the Student Teacher Achievement Tests in order to complete their applications.

Students are urged to take these tests at an early date in order that re-tests may be scheduled, if necessary.

All students who have applied for or are applying for admission to supervised teaching for spring term must take the student teacher achievement tests at this time.

The tests will be given at 8:30 a.m. on Thursday, January 11, in room 212 of Campbell hall. Following is a time schedule of the tests:

8:30 a.m. Distribution of materials.
8:45 a.m. Language.
9:20 a.m. Arithmetic.

Applicants are requested to report promptly at 8:30 a.m. as no student will be admitted to the room after the examinations have commenced.

Enrollment Hits 530 Pre-scheduling Helps

Registration for the winter term has nearly been completed with the following figures released as of January 4: Of the total of 530 students, 489 are in teacher training, 36 are in lower division work, and five are special students. Returning students numbered 501 and there were 29 new students. There are 106 veterans attending college this term.

This was the first term that pre-scheduling had been put into practice, and it was very satisfactory. The majority of students had completed their registration by noon on January 2, and there have been fewer schedule changes than usual, probably because of the extra time allowed for thought.

New students on the campus are: William Dale Cannon, Glenna Marie Jacob, Marilyn Marie Powell, Robert Vincent Powell, and Matthew Ralph Thompson, all transfers from the University of Oregon; Arlene Victoria Elshoff and Robert Howard Saxton, all from Oregon State college; Roy Leonard Andre, Walla Walla college; Laurise Bohler, San Jose State college; Walter Franklin Burgess, Olympic college; Jessie Mae Green, Western Washington College of Education; James Sigel Gruver, Porterville junior college; Mary Louise Henry, Black Hills Teachers college; Harold David Jole, Everett junior college.

Morris Paul McElwee, Willamette university; David Louis Simons, Vanport; Ernest M. Wilson, North Pacific college of pharmacy; Barbara Darlene Bowman and Donald Eugene Seibert, Dallas high school; Ruth Pearl Chrisman, Salem high; Carole Ann Norton, Moro high; Zane Pierre Phoenix, Stanfield high; Leo LaVern Plowman, Elmira union high; and Wade LeeRoy Sheasley, Lowell high.

Fall Honor Roll Students Named

Publication of the fall term honor roll at OCE shows that 45 students scored a grade-point average of 3.5 or better.

Of the 45, five turned in a perfect A-grade in every course. They were: Joan G. Aitken, Salem; Mildred DeVos, Peggy Neal and Helen K. Thompson, all of Monmouth; and Robert E. Waterman, Ridgefield, Washington.

To win honor roll listing, a student must carry at least 15 term hours of academic credit and win a grade-point average of 3.5 or better. Among those included in the list are: Helen Bannon, Joan Bloedel, Gloria J. Langdoe, Joseph T. Meier, Jr., and Gwendolyn D. Stilwell, all of Portland.

Other names appearing on the list are: Ann Blackwell, Lucille Felling, Forest Mulkins, Wanda Nelson, Richard Ottman, Melvin E. Peterson, Robert E. Price, Durward D. Ragan, Juanita Roberts, and Harry Walters, all of Monmouth; Lela Beach and Mary Chrismer of Independence; Kathryn Moberg, Susan Moberg and Emil J. Perkins, all of Astoria; Leslie Furer and Gail Snow both of Rainier; Gloria Logan and Gerald Rucker of Lebanon.

Also appearing on the list are: Cyrus E. Blair, Sheridan; Charles Chapman, Salem; Henry Decker, Aberdeen, South Dakota; Marilyn Dixon, Roseburg; Gloria Gallinat, Newberg; Lucille Goyak, Beaver-ton; Albert Hall, Prineville; Greta Lohrenz, Tigard; Norman McCumsey, Junction City; Molly Jo Rowe, Milwaukie; Raymond Scofield, Buxton; Barbee Sherman, Ketchikan, Alaska; Theodore J. Shorack, Jr., Elmira; Kay Smale, Los Angeles, California; Ruby Tuggle, McMinnville; and Fern Wallace, Tangent.

Freshmen To Sponsor Winter Talent Show

Winter Hit Parade, a freshman-sponsored talent show containing all-school talent, will be given in the auditorium of Campbell hall on Friday, January 19, at 8:00 p.m. An admission fee of 25 cents will be charged.

Each "Hit" will be performed by a representative group from the following living groups: Second, Third, and Mezzanine floors of Todd hall; Arnold Arms; East House; West House; Senior Cottage; Vets Village. Also, additional talent is needed to perform between these numbers. Auditions for these spots will be held at 7 p.m. on Monday, January 8, in the Campbell hall auditorium.

Doris Lane, chairman, and the following committee members, Barbara Vick, Kathy Miller, Greta Lohrenz, Harry Yahnke, Dick Harry, Lela Beach, LaVae Griffith and Eugene Blair, are handling the arrangements for the talent show and any information or ideas concerning it can be given to one of them.

Student Welfare Group Offers New Advantages

The Student Welfare Committee met Wednesday, January 3, at the Health Service to discuss current student problems.

It has been suggested to the student council by the Monmouth Chamber of Commerce to have a bulletin board down town to keep the townspeople posted on school activities to which they are invited. The project was turned over to the student welfare committee and it is to be investigated by Mrs. Jessup and Norma Barachman.

For student insurance the suggestion was made that it be run by the student body. At the present time the rates have been raised and there is no available student body money for such a policy. Oregon High School Activities Association (Continued on Page Two)

Cupid Active During Holiday Season

It seems that romance blossoms during a vacation; this is shown by the many engagements announced and wedding vows solemnized over the Christmas holidays.

TURNER-FRICK

Miss Ruth Frick became Mrs. Marvin Turner at an afternoon ceremony December 27 at the Asbury Methodist church in Hood River.

The bride was dressed in a white satin gown with full length train and a finger tip veil. Maid of honor was the bride's cousin, Janet Webb of Seattle. Bridesmaids were Mary Fake and Jeanne Darby. Ralph Sturdevant was best man and George Turner and a cousin of the bride were ushers. Mrs. Lloyd Stuve, sister of the groom, was soloist.

A reception was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. After the reception the couple left for a short honeymoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Turner are at home in Monmouth where they both attend school.

COLE-JURANEK

Marie Juranek and Joe Cole exchanged their vows December 21 at the Evangelical chapel in Jennings Lodge. The bride was lovely in an ice blue gown. She had three attendants, one of whom was Mary Lu Schulmerich, also a student at OCE. Bob Norton was one of the ushers.

The Coles are now at home in Monmouth where they both attend school.

FLOYD-SCHULTZ

Ruth Schultz and Bill Floyd, both OCE students of last year, exchanged their wedding vows December 27 at the First Congregational church in Eugene. John Herbert was one of the ushers for the groom and the bride was attended by friends from her home town. The couple will live near Eugene, where the new Mrs. Floyd teaches. Mr. Floyd is teaching in the Coburg school system.

PRINCE-FOX

Hilda Fox became Mrs. Harold Prince at a wedding December 15 at the Christ Lutheran church in Salem. (Continued on Page Two)

EDITORIAL

WELCOME, NEW AND RETURNING STUDENTS

The LAMRON takes this opportunity to welcome returning students in hopes that they had an enjoyable holiday season. The staff of this paper also wishes to welcome any new students to OCE in hopes that they will find what they are looking for in classrooms or other places around this campus.

CONCERNING NEW YEAR'S RESOLUTIONS

A good New Year's resolution for many of us might be the one about holding our gripes when it comes to having to pay for things around this campus. The student body card is just as valuable as it ever was, despite the difference in opinion which many students may have. The only difficulty is that the student body finances are little in the "red" this year, and it is up to us to start paying on the debt, so naturally with the decrease in the green folding stuff, comes a big increase in yak-yak about having to pay. Since when did people start to get something for nothing?

If the people around here think that this place is rough on the pocketbook, just start looking around for a place that will cost as little. During the past vacation, the editorial writer did some checking with students from numerous other schools around this area and found that in comparison, students at OCE don't have such a bad deal.

So, if you seem to be having trouble accepting the idea of having to pay for dances, movies, etc. at OCE, don't gripe, Mac, TRANSFER!!!! —S.T.S.

Veterans' Adviser at OCE Requests Your Cooperation on Questionnaire

Matthew R. Thompson, veterans' adviser, has expressed the idea that if a record could be kept of the OCE students who are called into the armed service it would prove of value to the student body in the future.

Therefore it is requested that all male students and male faculty members cooperate by filling out the form below as accurately as possible. Any women students or faculty members who are connected with the armed services are asked to do the same. If you know of anyone who was enrolled here during the fall term and has been called or has enlisted, you are asked to fill as much of the information as possible.

Please place these questionnaires in a box which will be placed in the student post office. Thank you.

Phi Beta Sigma Dinner Served Fifteenth Year

Phi Beta Sigma members, initiates and families gathered at the home of Miss Emma Henkle for the annual dinner Thursday evening. After the dinner the guests played cards and visited, exchanging ideas and plans for the coming year.

Miss Henkle has given this annual dinner for the past 15 years and it has come to be the social event of the year for the organization.

The newsletter which Phi Beta Sigma publishes each year for members and alumni is nearing completion and this year another project of a national newsletter is being worked on.

Wolf Knight Sweaters Are To Appear Again

In the near future, sweaters and emblems familiar to the old students but probably strange to the new ones, will again appear on the OCE campus. To the new students an explanation is in order. The "W.K." emblems appearing on the sweaters does not stand for "Women Killer" (although in some cases it may well be true); the letters stand for "Wolf Knights," the OCE men's service organization.

The active members of Wolf Knights are as follows: Jack Graham, John Herbert, Chuck Humble, Roy E. Lieuallen (faculty adviser), Merlin Marsh, Lionel Miller (air force bound), Homer Olfert, John Robinson, Ted Shorack, John Snyder, Marv Turner, and George Watts.

lem. The couple live in Salem where Mr. Prince is employed. Mrs. Prince is attending school at OCE.
SMEED-SUTTON

Mary Lou Sutton and Ralph Smeed exchanged their vows in a ceremony at the Trinity Lutheran church in Eugene on December 27.

The bride wore a traditional white satin gown with net insert and a finger-tip length veil. Janet Brymer was the honor attendant and Louise Plog was bridesmaid. Virginia Pomante was soloist.

The new couple live at Ashland where Mrs. Smeed attends school. Mr. Smeed is employed in nearby Medford.

SEARCY-GABRIEL

A wedding of interest to many students at OCE was that of Miss Barbara Gabriel to Mr. Robert Searcy. The ceremony took place at the Community Methodist church in Sweet Home on December 16. Mrs. Searcy was a student here last year.

Mr. and Mrs. Searcy are at home in Corvallis where Mr. Searcy is a senior at Oregon State college.

LEE-GREEN

Another wedding of interest was that of Miss Neva Green to Robin Lee. The ceremony was held in Portland on December 29.

Mrs. Lee is teaching school in Toledo and Mr. Lee is employed by the Taft school system.

Other weddings of interest were Idel Benson to Mike Cahill on December 23, and Catherine Getty to Wilbur Heath. The Cahills are living in Clatskanie where Mr. Cahill is employed. The Heaths are at home in Klamath Falls where Mr. Heath attends school and Mrs. Heath has a position at the Pelican school.

ENGAGEMENTS

Engagements announced during the Christmas holidays were: Marie Gedrose to Harvey Goeman; Joanne Polleske to Bruce Moorhead; Pat

Keep to Paul Lee; and Shirley Klassen to Dewey James.

Other girls returning after the holidays with diamonds are Sally Cruzen, Molly Jo Rowe, Dorothy Ladd, Jane Turner, and Velda Marshall.

Best wishes to these girls and our apologies to anyone whose name was not included in this column.

Evening Classes Start

The continuation of the first term sequence in first year German language is meeting again Thursday evenings from 7 to 9 o'clock in room 222 of Campbell hall. Anton Postl is the instructor.

Dr. Louis Kaplan is offering Psychology of Childhood (Ed. 460-G) on Monday nights from 6:45 to 10:00 o'clock, in room 110 of Campbell hall.

Dr. H. Kent Farley will teach Supervision of Teaching (Ed. 477) on Tuesday evenings from 7:00 to 9:45 o'clock in Campbell hall room 110.

Dr. Hocking is giving a class in Pre-Primary Education (Ed. 361) on Monday and Wednesday nights from 7:30 to 8:45 o'clock in room 115 in Campbell hall.

DEAR MOM:

Well, we've completed another registration day with grand-dad's old umbrella over and those formidable galoshes beneath! Your children were bedraggled, sad-looking waifs, standing in those long, long lines, but the "hail-fellow-well-met" atmosphere was too pleasant to dampen our spirits completely.

In spite of this, Mom, the whole term seems different already. We aren't really freshmen any longer, nor are we feeling like the proverbial "high and mighty" seniors. We seem to be ordinary, plodding students with routine settled comfortably around our shoulders. Some how, though, we seem to think a great deal about the fellows "over there." It sort of hits low—way beneath the belt—when we look around in classes and see those vacant desks. It's hard to look at your best buddy without wondering, "Who's next, you or me?" Gee, Mom, here is your offspring philosophizing. It doesn't happen very often, but this is something we can't ignore! We're all afraid, Mom, but only as afraid as the next guy.

As long as we're "letting you in" on our inner-most thoughts, we'll thank you for your unceasing efforts to make Christmas vacation so wonderful. You probably think we don't notice the clean sheets, the bacon fried just the way we like it, the candles on the table, and all the million things which you do for us every day. But, we notice and we think Moms are pretty wonderful people.

—Your Loving Children

has proposed that all schools in the state system of higher education form an association for an insurance policy.

One reason why the student movies are old shows is that the newer movies of high grade are not released to the schools. There will be an attempt to work with the local theater to obtain more shows such as "Hamlet."

The next meeting of the student welfare committee will be held in the latter part of February. Anyone who has problems that can be discussed at this meeting should contact one of the following people: Ford Forster, Colleen Marsh, Norma Barachman, D'Anne Brumbough or Letha Thomas.

Basketball Loop Opened Last Friday

Friday night's encounter between the Oregon College of Education Wolves, tutored by Coach Robert Knox, and the Vanport Vikings, under the reins of Coach Arba Ager, marked the opening of the first basketball schedule drawn up by the newly formed Oregon Collegiate Conference.

This conference, composed of Eastern Oregon College of Education, Oregon Technical Institute, Vanport college and OCE, recently completed a very successful football slate. The winter docket calls for a 12-game basketball schedule with each squad meeting each of the other conference members four times on a home and home basis, similar to the Pacific Coast Conference.

On the basis of pre-season performance no one team can clearly be chosen as potential champion. Their records to date are strikingly similar, which seems to indicate that the pennant race will not be decided until the final week of play.

Baptist Minister Talks To Students in Chapel

The Reverend J. James Clow was the guest speaker at a chapel service which was held this morning in the Campbell hall auditorium. Rev. Clow is a Negro minister from Portland; he is of the Baptist denomination.

Men Leave For Military Service

Most of the fellows are back at Arnold Arms after a successful fall term and Christmas vacation at their various homes.

§ § § §

Several fellows have moved from Arnold Arms since the end of fall term. Curtis Shumate has enlisted in the air corps. Don Dixon left for service in the navy. Harvey Goeman has reported to Fort Lewis, Washington, as a corporal in the 7th airborne. Some former residents have moved to other houses. Glenn Hall and Daron Dierks have moved to Nelson hall. Wally Aho, Emil Perkins and Peter Johnson are now living in Hall house. Jack Wirth has also moved.

§ § § §

Eric Rhoads and Doug Hill are living at Arnold Arms after a sojourn in Hawaii during fall term. Bob Link and Jim Spear are also new occupants of the house. Thirty-nine fellows are now living in the dorm.

§ § § §

Arnold Arms is willing to challenge all other campus living groups for the highest GPA after learning the results from fall term grades. At least 17 fellows made the honor roll. Bob Waterman took sweepstakes with a 4.0.

§ § § §

Mrs. McBee spent the holidays in Portland. Some of the education courses—Introduction to Education, Primary Education, and Intermediate and Upper Grade Education—will be under her direction this term.

§ § § §

House officers for winter term will be elected soon. Last term's officers were Glen Hall, president; Les DeHart, vice-president; Daron Dierks, secretary-treasurer; Eugene Blair, reporter; and Harold Briggs, social chairman.

§ § § §

The fellows enjoyed a New Year's party last Tuesday evening, thanks to the thoughtfulness of their hostess, Mrs. McBee.

Arnold, our former five-months-old mascot, is now living at the Frank Maxwell home at Monroe.

Joan McBride Leaves College

With the holidays over, it's back to the "salt mines" and Todd hall again. Everyone is busy admiring Christmas presents, many of which are "sparklers."

§ § § §

We'll be missing a familiar face around the dorm this term. Joan McBride has left school to work, leaving "Beautiful Bunny" Walton as our house president.

§ § § §

Kathryn Harbert who has been recuperating from an operation during the vacation, is returning to school this week. Good to see you back, Kay.

§ § § §

On her way back Monday night Joan Bloedel was in a four-car collision in Salem. No one was seriously injured, but that'll teach him to drive with both hands, huh, Joanie?

§ § § §

Back in the dorm this term is Barbara (Thompson) Brown, whose husband, Dan, is with the army in Korea.

Devices To Be Shown

At 10 a.m. on Thursday, January 18, a demonstration of different machines and devices that create and measure sound, will be given in the Campbell hall auditorium by the Pacific Telephone Company.

Men Move to E. House

Four new members have been added to the East House family this term. All four are veterans, they are Wade Sheasley from Lowell, Walter Burgess from Jennings Lodge, Leo Plowman from Elmira, and Harold Jole from Sheridan.

§ § § §

The Savage twins, Gene and Glen, and Leo Lightner received orders to report for their physicals over the holidays.

Miller's Welcome Mat Out to Four Newcomers

Pre-Christmas activities enjoyed by the girls at Miller house included a combination Christmas party with exchange of gifts and a shower for Ruth Frick and Idel Benson. The girls were all amused by Santa Claus who came dressed in stripes and up the stairs instead of down the chimney.

§ § § §

Mrs. Mary Gibbons entertained the girls at her home on December 12 at a surprise pre-nuptial shower honoring Catherine Getty.

The girls returning to Miller house would like to welcome the newcomers to the group, Ruth Hess, Glenna Ayres, Eileen Clancy, and Eileen Goings. These girls are taking the places of Idel Benson, Ruth Frick, Catherine Getty, and Norma Jean Misfeldt.

Flopsy spent his Christmas vacation with Shirley Oliver in Portland. Apparently he enjoyed his stay, because he had grown so the girls hardly recognized him.

Senior Cottage Girls Lose Goldfish Mascot

The girls at Senior Cottage were greatly saddened when they heard of the death of Jerry, their goldfish mascot. The owner promises to obtain another mascot as soon as possible.

All fall term girls returned to Senior Cottage with the exception of Barbara Tague who moved off-campus.

The Senior Cottage received a very nice Christmas note from some one. Thanks a million to the unknown.

§ § § §

Sincere thanks also go to "Smiley" who sent the girls a lovely Christmas card.

§ § § §

The girls all enjoyed a very nice vacation but are happy to be back at school again.

Wesley Hears Minister From Portland Church

The Reverend J. Jones Clow of Portland spoke to the Wesley club on Sunday evening, January 7. His subject was "The Development of the Baptist Church." After the meeting the group attended open-house at the Anton Postl home.

Next Sunday, January 14, the Wesley club is tentatively planning to have a discussion of the Quaker group.

Women's Honorary Has Fall Initiation Supper

Henrietta Johnson was received as a member of Sigma Epsilon Pi, women's scholastic honorary, at a formal initiation ceremony held in Dean Joan Seavey's apartment on December 16. Following the initiation ceremony, Dean Seavey was hostess for a buffet supper to honor members of Sigma Epsilon Pi. Entertainment consisted of carol singing and a story read by Miss Seavey.

BOOK WORM

Fifth Chinese Daughter written by Jade Snow Wong is the story of an American-Chinese girl's first 24 years.

It is interesting to note that the book is written in the third person which is from a Chinese habit of the submergence of the individual. Here the submergence of the individual is literally practiced.

San Francisco's Chinatown is the setting of the story. Jade Snow Wong, fifth daughter of a Cantonese family, tells of her life in this autobiography.

Chinese children early learn that respect and order are very important. Even as a child, Jade Snow could not hand something to her elders with one hand; she must use two hands to signify that she paid them undivided attention.

The Wongs lived at the back of the father's overall factory. Jade Snow often traveled with her father in a bright red wheelbarrow as they collected completed garments and gave out materials.

During these younger days her father started teaching Jade simple lessons and even when Jade Snow attended a Chinese-American school where English was spoken, her Chinese lessons were continued by her father and at night school.

The birth of a baby brother made Jade Snow very much aware that Chinese parents valued their sons more highly than their daughters. Even so, Jade Snow was fortunate, for her father believed in education for women.

The whole book brings out in a simple way the confusion of a little Chinese girl caught between two cultures, each very different, one culture from the Orient, and the other from the Occident.

Simply told and delightfully written, the story is a rich insight into the life of a Chinese-American family. It particularly deals with the difficulties of a young girl who breaks away from the Oriental idea of the subjection of women; but yet, retains the love and honesty gained from her Chinese heritage.

Fonger Directs Play

"Catching Up With Christmas," directed by Helen Fonger, was presented for the Co-Wed club on December 12 at the city hall.

Margaret Smith and Helen Walters were in charge of refreshments which included cookies and Christmas "wassail."

The next meeting is scheduled for January 15. Wanita Lampa, Melva Moore and Jacquie Pitcher will be the hostesses.

Tryouts To Be Held

Try-outs for Orchestras, the Modern Dance club, will be held tomorrow, January 9, at 4 p.m. in the physical education dance room. Anyone who has had at least one term of modern dance or basic rhythms, at this or at any other college, is eligible for membership.

Since try-outs will be held only once this term, anyone who is interested but unable to attend this meeting should make arrangements with Mrs. Faye Knox.

One Point Drops Game for Wolves

The OCE Wolves dropped a heart-breaker on the home floor Friday evening as Doug Talbot, reserve Vanport forward, raced the length of the court with an intercepted pass in the closing seconds to erase an OCE lead and give the Vikings a 75-74 victory.

The Wolves dominated play most of the game, holding a 40-39 half-time lead and stretching it into a 54-45 lead midway through the second half. At this point the Portlanders began their stretch drive which netted them a 69-68 lead with four minutes remaining.

OCE came back on some brilliant shooting by diminutive Leroy Coleman and some outstanding back-board work by Hal Pitcher, forward, but were unable to stop the final Viking flurry.

Top point-getters for the evening were Howard Sullivan and Charlie Humble of the Wolves with 14 each. Bergman and Wells registered 12 apiece for Vanport. Half-time score favored OCE 40-39. The lineups:

Vanport (75)		(74) OCE
Bergman 12	F	14 Sullivan
Carrington 11	F	10 Pitcher
Adrian 9	C	11 Moorhead
Pitzer 3	G	8 Bushnell
Hoy 7	G	14 Humble

Subs: For Vanport — Talbot 10, Fenner 3, Strickler 2, Koski 6, Wells 12; For OCE — Kvistad 3, King 2 and Coleman 12.

JV's Win Victory Over Dallas Trucking Team

The OCE JV's officially opened their basketball season Friday night, December 12, by romping over the Cribbs Bros. trucking team of Dallas 61-41 in a preliminary game.

The Wolverines grabbed an early lead with Charley Pinion hitting the hemp consistently and were never headed throughout the contest. The half-time score was 28-21. The Dallas team rallied in the third period only to be smothered again in the final period when OCE hit another hot streak.

Charley Pinion, OCE guard, held scoring honors for the evening with 19 points. He was closely followed by George Slawson, also an OCE student who played for the visitors, making 16 points.

Woodburn Tramples Wolf JayVees 53-31

The Woodburn town team trampled the OCE junior varsity 53-31 on Friday night, January 5, in a preliminary basketball game here. The visitors grabbed an early lead and held a 23-13 half-time advantage. They led the way by at least 10 points all through the contest. Sawtelle was high scorer for the evening by dumping 28 points through the hoop for Woodburn. Jim Dyal led the Wolverines with 14. Lineups:

Woodburn (53)		(31) OCE JV's
Murphy	F	4 Thompson
Knutson 6	F	Perkins
Sawtelle 28	C	14 Dyal
Ladehoff 13	G	2 Hays
Kahut 4	G	5 Palmquist

Subs: Woodburn—Traeger 2; OCE—Harp, Sittser, Pinkston, Phoenix 2, Way, Kleiner, Kent 3, Balsh 1.

HAROLD PITCHER, ace forward for Oregon College of Education, shoots for two points against the Badgers of Pacific university here December 12. Behind Pacific player number 20 stands Bruce Moorhead, OCE center.

Wildcats Claw OCE Five 83-62

Coach Bob Knox's OCE crew dropped an 83-62 decision to the Linfield college Wildcats in a high-scoring basketball game on December 30 in McMinnville. The Wildcats, considered to be a leading contender for the Northwest Conference title, grabbed a 40-33 halftime lead and went on to win in convincing fashion.

Howard Sullivan of the Wolves shared scoring honors with Anderson of Linfield, each counting 18 points. Rutschman of Linfield with 13 and Humble of OCE with 10 were the other major point-makers.

Mills Announces WAA Basketball Practice

Margaret Mills, sports head for WAA basketball, has announced that practice for basketball will begin Wednesday night, January 10. These practices are open to any girls interested, and will be held each Wednesday and Thursday at 6:30 p.m.

Several games with other schools will be scheduled during the term and play will be culminated by class tournaments, the last week of practice.

"You don't have to be a professional to take part," says Margaret, "so come on out and join the fun!"

Junior Varsity Chooses Players

This term sees two freshmen on the OCE junior varsity basketball team. They are Ralph Thompson, who played for Monmouth high school last year, and Zane Phoenix, who played at Stanfield. They are both looking good at forward positions and should see considerable action. Jim Dyal, a sophomore from Sandy, is holding down the center slot while the probable starting guards are Whitey Palmquist, a junior from Portland, and Dick Balsh, a sophomore from Cottage Grove.

The reserves are: Guards, Wally Kent, a sophomore from Long Beach, Calif., and Arnold Sittser, a sophomore from Harrisburg; Forwards, Emil Perkins, a freshman from Knappa, and Gene Harp, a sophomore from Salem, and Louis Pinkston, a senior from Reedsport; and Center, Bert Kleiner, a senior from Portland.

Coach Bill McArthur has been trying to mold the boys into a fast-break team. As the season is getting well under way, the boys will have an ample opportunity to prove their worth.

Three of the better ball players, Roger Dasch, Chuck Pinion and Neil Richardson have been lost for the season.

The JV's have something to work for as they now have a record of one game won and none lost. They will play preliminary and Tuesday night ball games.

Wolves Drop One To Lebanon Elks

Lebanon's AAU Elks evened their count with the OCE hoop quintet in a scrimmage on the Lebanon court on Friday, December 29, by a 60-58 margin. The Wolves took the first tilt by a 70-66 margin earlier in the year.

OCE dominated the first half and held a 23-21 edge at halftime, but succumbed to the shooting of Lynn Hamilton, ex-University of Oregon ace, in the last half. Hamilton tallied 25 points to lead all scorers. Art Sperber paced the collegians with 15 counters, followed by Bruce Moorhead's 13 and Howard Sullivan's 12.

Round-Robin Set Opens New Slate

The intramural basketball season will begin this evening, Monday, January 8. There are eight teams making up the schedule and the season will be based on a single round robin.

The player limit has been set at 12 men per team. The team rosters must be turned in to Arch Padberg, intramural director, before the first scheduled game. All squads must be complete by January 15. Varsity or junior varsity players have until this date to join an intramural team. After this date, it will be considered a forfeit game if any team uses these men.

January 15 is also the latest date that any other team may enter the contest.

Most games have been scheduled for Mondays and Fridays. There are two exceptions. Games scheduled for Monday begin at 7:00 and 8:00 p.m. sharp. Games scheduled for Friday start at 4:00 and 5:00 p.m. sharp. A 15-minute leniency period will be granted late teams. Failure to be ready to play at this time will result in forfeit of the game.

Associated Students Memorial Building
University of Washington
Seattle, Washington

The Associated Students Memorial Union Building is one of the favorite on-the-campus haunts of students at the University of Washington. That's because the Union Building is a friendly place, always full of the busy atmosphere of college life. There is always plenty of ice-cold Coca-Cola, too. For here, as in university gathering spots everywhere—Coke belongs.
